

Fifth Grade Flyer

Week of: August 13-17th

Edition: 1

This Weeks News...

Welcome back to school! I feel very blessed to have the opportunity to teach your child this year!

Math: The students will begin with a review of multiplication facts and starting a unit on place value.

Reading: The students will work on reading and vocabulary strategies.

Bible: The students will memorize the school verse.

Science: We will begin our unit on Scientific Investigation, which will prepare the students on how we study and understand science. Students can hand in the extra credit garden research on Friday, August 17th.

History: We will begin our first unit in History.

English: This week we will be learning about subjects in a sentence.

Writing: We are going to learn about how to use a circle thinking map to help brainstorm ideas for their first writing paper. The students will be writing an imaginative story.

Geography: We will begin unit 1 in Maps, Globes, and Graphs. The students will also begin their country unit on Canada.

Notes and Reminders...

-Make sure you check your email every Friday for the new Fifth Grade Flyer.

-Students have been encouraged to pick a book from my classroom library to start reading for AR points.

-Students need to bring their instruments to class on Thursday. The students will pick their instrument out at the "Meet the Teacher" night.

-- PE uniforms are needed on Thursday, August 16th and Friday, August 17th. Volleyball and Soccer practice starts on Monday, August 27th.

-Students need to hand in their Student of the Week poster by Friday August 31st.
